THE JOSH GIBSON FOUNDATION AND JOSH GIBSON ENTERPRISES
NAME ED SCHAUER, CHAIRMAN OF THE SPORTS LAW PRACTICE GROUP AT PHILLIPS NIZER LLP, AS ITS LICENSING AGENT

Pittsburgh PA, June 30, 2020 – As part of its continued efforts surrounding the Negro Leagues Centennial Anniversary, The Josh Gibson Foundation and Josh Gibson Enterprises announced today that Ed Schauder, the Chairman of the Sports Law Practice Group at Phillips Nizer, LLP has been named authorized legal representative for licensing for both entities.

As part of the engagement, Mr. Schauder will explore domestic licensing opportunities with a variety of third-party licensees. Mr. Schauder plans on capitalizing not only on the popularity of the game of baseball in the United States, but around the world, as it will be able to leverage the marks and IP rights of the legendary Hall of Fame Negro Leagues legend Josh Gibson and the Centennial celebration. In addition to its Licensing responsibilities, Mr. Schauder will assist the Josh Gibson Foundation with select sponsorships and promotional opportunities.

In 1990, Mr. Schauder co-founded and represented the Negro League Baseball Players Association, comprised of over 120 former Negro League Players, including Josh Gibson, Jr. The NLBPA lobbied MLB and the Hall of Fame to recognize the great African American pioneers that were precluded from playing Major League Baseball prior to Jackie Robinson breaking the color barrier on April 15, 1947. The NLBPA, including Josh Gibson, Jr., were invited to the White House on February 19, 1992 by President George Bush to celebrate Black History Month.

“The Gibson Family, Josh Gibson Foundation, and Josh Gibson Enterprises are excited to have Ed Schauder, and his firm Phillips Nizer, represent Negro League baseball great and 1972 Hall of Fame inductee Josh Gibson,” said Sean Gibson, Executive Director of Josh Gibson Foundation. “Ed was a personal friend of my late grandfather, Josh Gibson Jr. and has been a friend of the Gibson family since 1990. As co-founder of the Negro League Baseball Players Association, Ed brings a wealth of knowledge and legal advice when it comes to protecting the intellectual property rights for former Negro League stars like Josh Gibson.”

Schauder said, “Josh Gibson is a legendary Hall of Famer, a pioneer and a global icon and we know this brand has impact wherever the game of baseball is played. To represent Josh Gibson is a tremendous honor, having formed the NLBPA earlier in my career. The licensing campaign that we will be conducting will allow licensees to create new products designed with the avid baseball fan in mind, while also sharing in the rich history of the game of baseball and, in particular, the Negro Leagues.”
